INTRODUCTION:

In spite of its very tight curricular schedules, the College has always held Workshops, Seminars and Conferences on varied and multidisciplinary aspects, which can be of common interest and cut across the narrow subject and stream barriers. On an average, the College has held roughly 30 such programs annually. During the Corona Pandemic period, the College did not stop such programs but conducted the same on the on-line platform. Eminent speakers, Stalwart articulators have filled all in the College with in depth insights and implementable knowledge which helps both in theory and praxis.

The College has also done a lot of Extension activities beginning with Health Camps and closing with deliberation on Social Justice, at an average of 10 per year. The College believes that such programs enable all in the College to be true Citizens of the World through the constant process of updating, and admixing health issues and philanthropy with academics.

Remembering the oft-quoted proverb that the battle of Waterloo was won in the Fields of Elton, the College always encourages sports and games among the Students, Teaching and Non-Teaching all round the year. The Principal's room contains a shelf, which is full of the trophies, mementoes and accolades won by the Students of the College. Indeed, the College has always produced Students, teaching and Non-Teaching Staff who are active sports persons, yoga experts, physiotherapists, representing the College in the State and even National levels. The College also has a Cultural Committee, which holds programs in the Class Rooms or College Auditorium regularly, commemorating Rabindra Jayanti, and other days of national significance. Teachers, Students and Non-teaching collaborate and perform in a team in all such programs. We have commendably talented singers among Non-Teaching, Teaching and Students; as well as reputed dancers of national and international frame among Teachers. Teachers AND Students jointly perform dance recitals of Mahasur Mardini, which is profound and highly artistic.

The College encourages all the teachers to participate in the FDP, and consequently the number of such participation per year is comparatively quiet high. Teachers' participating in such FDPs are encouraged to submit a report of the same, so that other teachers can also gain knowledge but in-depth study of the submitted report. This not only helps the teachers in keeping abreast of the latest developments in their respective fields, but spread their new knowledge among the students, who also find food for thought, and develop research interest in the most recent and developing topics.

Briksharopan Utsav: An initiative by History Department

The History Department of Barasat College conducted a lecture on 08 August 2018, between 10:00 P.M in room number 37. The celebration was about providing more information to the students about Briksharopan Utsav as a festival of a new beginning. The session had been conducted and addressed by the Head of the Department Professor Kukum Sengupta, it was arranged for the students in the first semester of the Department of History. Knowledge of Briksharopan Utsav is essential for higher graduate students, the celebration helped them understand the meaning of plants and trees in our lives. The main objective of this festival is to encourage students to plant more trees. These trees will provide food and shade for cattle, reduce droughts and prevent soil erosion. In these two lectures, Professor Kukum Sengupta introduced notions of the celebration from a viewpoint closely related to the value of plants in our lives. Rabindranath had long bewailed the ruthless deforestation of the countryside In his own words poet said – “The Creator had sent life, made preparations everywhere for the same. Humans out of greed provided ingredients for killing. Violating the Creator’s intent, there is so many curses in human society. Destroying the forests, greedy humans, invited their own detriment. Trees are assigned to cleanse the air, their fallen leaves provide fertility to the soil, and they are being uprooted.

A Debate on “Is national education beneficial or dangerous in context of Globalization?”

The Department of History of Barasat College had conducted a debate on the topic of, “Is national education beneficial or dangerous in context of globalization?”, on 14 January 2019. The debate was held in room number 37 of the college and all the students from the whole History Department had both participated and attended the debate. The program was held from 12 PM in the afternoon and it was shared by Professor Kukum Sengupta, the Head of the History Department, who was in charge of organizing the whole debate session. In context of the topic for the debate session it is very important to understand the meaning of both globalization and national education. Globalization can be defined as the process by which businesses or other organizations develop international influence or start operating on an international scale. Whereas in India there is a policy, known as The National Policy on Education, formulated by the government to promote, regulate and support education in all parts of the country. Therefore, globalization in education refers to the increasing mobility of students and teachers across the world and the need for educators to be more inclusive. In the context of globalization, it has become a necessity that teachers need to widen cross-cultural skills and school leaders must update educational policies in order to respond to these global impact changes.
