1. In this one-day state-level webinar, Ms. Suparna Mazumder (WBCS Executive; Deputy Secretary of KMDA) acted as speaker.

She spoke basically about gender discrimination; use of codified, suggestive language and sexual innuendoes in workplace to indirectly haveas an malign women working there.

She concluded by saying that unless the males change their mind frame and learn to look at a woman not as an object of sexuality, but with respect, sexual harassment will always remain, directly or indirectly.

2. Total 86 participants joined the webinar. The Question-Answer session was a brain storming one. The program was a grand success.

The seminar ended with vote of thanks to the Chair.
